Cadi Doran

"I have been brought up in a Welsh home even though my Dad is English. My Dad has learnt some Welsh with the help of my sister and I over the years.

My favourite memories of being a pupil in Ysgol Dewi Sant are taking part in the Welsh activities like singing and reciting in the Eisteddfod yr Urdd, representing the school in the Urdd swimming galas and playing football for the girl's team.

I'm very proud of my Welsh background because it's a help to be able to speak Welsh with the girls in the FAW team that I'm a part of. As well as when I get called up to the Welsh girls under 15s camp, it's a great benefit.

I am looking forward to using the Welsh language in years to come and feel very fortunate to have started my Welsh education in Ysgol Dewi Sant."

"Rydw i wedi cael fy nwyn i fyny mewn cartref Cymraeg, er bod Dad yn Saesneg. Mae Dad wedi dysgu dipyn or iaith gyda help fi a fy chwaer fach dros y blynyddoedd.
Fy hoff atgofion o fod yn ddisgybl yn Ysgol Dewi Sant yw cymryd rhan yn y gweithgareddau Cymraeg fel canu ac adrodd yn Eisteddfod yr Urdd, cynrychioli'r ysgol yng Ngala nofio yr Urdd a chwarae pêl droed i dîm y genethod.

Rydw i'n falch iawn o fy nghefndir Cymraeg achos gallaf siarad Cymraeg hefo merched y tîm FAW rydw i'n rhan ohono. A phan rydw i'n cael fy ngalw fyny i camp pêl droed tîm merched Cymru o dan 15, mae o'n fantais mawr.

Rydw i'n edrych ymlaen i ddefnyddio'r iaith Gymraeg mewn blynyddoedd i ddod ac yn ffodus i gael cychwyn fy addysg Gymraeg yn Ysgol Dewi Sant."
